Dianne Denison named to NSBA Leadership Council

Carlisle, PA. Dianne Denison, Founder and CEO of Denison Consulting Group / Denison Technologies was recently named to the National Small Business Association (NSBA) Leadership Council. NSBA is the nation's oldest small-business advocacy organization and operates on a staunchly nonpartisan basis. Denison, a recognized leader in the small-business community, joins the NSBA Leadership Council alongside other small-business advocates from across the country as they work to promote the interests of small business to policymakers in Washington, D.C.

"As a small business owner, I see daily the importance of being involved and active when it comes to laws and regulation," stated Denison. "Joining NSBA's Leadership Council will enable me to take our collective small business message to the people that need to hear it most: Congress."

Denison, a veteran of the technology industry, is the Founder and CEO of Denison Consulting Group. The company has been named "one of the top 10 in the country" in manufacturing intelligence by delivering complex energy, power quality and data analytics solutions with wide-spread impact across manufacturing and industry.

Denison joined the NSBA Leadership Council as part of her efforts to tackle the many critical issues facing small business, including tax reform, regulatory restraint, health care costs and how the Affordable Care Act will impact small business. The NSBA Leadership Council is focused on providing valuable networking between small-business advocates from across the country while ensuring small business a seat at the table as Congress and regulators take up key small-business proposals.

"I am proud to have Dianne Denison as part of the Leadership Council," stated NSBA President and CEO Todd McCracken. "She came to us highly recommended and I look forward to our coordinated efforts for years to come."
